The Jackets Liz DeJesus, 2011-03-31 The Jackets is a collection of short stories in which Liz DeJesus explores the connection between colors and emotions. Love unrequited, love fulfilled, and unrelenting reality crushing hopes and dreams are some of the experiences symbolized in the jacket colors that structure the rhapsodic explorations of the stages of love as experienced by young women. Red is the color of love at first sight for Laura. Orange are the flames of passion for Mia. For Penelope, brown is the color of nature—of the ancient gods and their unfettered love-making. Each chapter explores a unique perspective: a writer trying to find her muse; a young woman trying to flee an abusive relationship; a cashier getting lost in the woods and finding more than she had ever bargained for. In this intriguing blend of fiction and fantasy, the women in these stories hope for relationships, break out of them or find themselves involved with mythical gods and creatures. These fantastical pieces make for entertaining reading and give insight into young women's eternal search for romance. DeJesus's style is direct and uncompromising. Her women are courageous and captivating. This book will be a page-turner for women at every stage of life.

Women in Clothes Sheila Heti, Heidi Julavits, Leanne Shapton, 2025-05-01 THE NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER Women in Clothes is a book unlike any other. It is essentially a conversation among hundreds of women of all nationalities—famous, anonymous, religious, secular, married, single, young, old—on the subject of clothing, and how the garments we put on every day define and shape our lives. It began with a survey. The editors composed a list of more than fifty questions designed to prompt women to think more deeply about their personal style. Writers, activists, and artists including Cindy Sherman, Kim Gordon, Kalpona Akter, Sarah Nicole Prickett, Tavi Gevinson, Miranda July, Roxane Gay, Lena Dunham, and Molly Ringwald answered these questions with photographs, interviews, personal testimonies, and illustrations. Even our most basic clothing choices can give us confidence, show the connection between our appearance and our habits of mind, express our values and our politics, bond us with our friends, or function as armor or disguise. They are the tools we use to reinvent ourselves and to transform how others see us. Women in Clothes embraces the complexity of women's style decisions, revealing the sometimes funny, sometimes strange, always thoughtful impulses that influence our daily ritual of getting dressed.

The Winter Women Mary-Rose Hayes, 1987

Down Jacket Margaret Weitzmann, 2006-01-01 The All-American High Style World Tour Fashion Competition has drawn two hundred women to the giant Macy-Pelletier complex in New York City. Clelia Johnson, a young Black widow from Millburn NJ, is one entrant. Her escape through the Hudson River blockade during the great Harlem Revolt of 2015 makes her an Infiltrator, an illegal returnee to Manhattan. The contest may be the only chance she'll ever have to show her son Adrian where she was born. She and her husband George were loners, set apart by their love of rock-climbing as well as by race. You like that? Being on top of the world? the strange woman called Choat quizzes her sarcastically. No, Clelia confesses. On top of danger. Choat is Intelligence. She has been summoned by Clelia's handler, Gregor, who suspects Clelia of being a company spy. Pelletier may be Numero Uno in international garment contracts. That doesn't mean the competition can't play dirty, he tells Clelia. We're bound to check out oddities like you. Paradoxically, it is Clelia's physical strength and feistiness that carry her to the finals. Amazon! That's your image, Gregor crows. It's an archetype. The Right-to-Home Law turned women into dolls. But people still carry the image in their heads. They'll buy it. As the competition proceeds, Clelia is chilled to discover the ways in which she and her fellow-contestants are alike. They were all pre-selected for beauty. They are also all single heads of households, with one child and no immediate families. All are pensioners, supported by government accounts. And only she seems to mind being sorted through and tried on, like the merchandise they are modeling. She hopes her contrariness will disqualify her. But as the competition winds down she is astounded to learn that, not only has she won Stage Three and a trip to Europe, she is a winner at Stage Two and a candidate for Stage One. She is World Class! Where that class might take her becomes more and more apparent in the next few hours. To win is to lose. At Stage Two she is appropriated by the man who owns the supranational Fuselius which owns Pelletier, which owns Macy's. Whether or not she wins World Class, it is horribly clear she must spend an unspecified and unpleasurable time with him. It is also horribly clear that Adrian is part of the deal. What more can she lose? In her favorite light climbing shoes, a servitor's dress and the down jacket she wore in her free-style competition, with the help of a servitor who shows her the hidden service corridors called Supply-Side and a derelict actress who gives her pointers on disguise, Clelia escapes from Macy's. A friendly trucker gives her a lift. With his help she learns that Adrian has disappeared. Her only chance to blow the whistle on this multinational commerce in bodies is to flee Manhattan -- again -- and take her story to Federal Security. But at Chelsea Checkpoint the truck is searched. Clelia is arrested. When one of the Port Authority police lets slip that her down jacket was bugged -- that it is not Port Authority which wants her, but Fuselius -- the trucker blows up. After all us Teamsters done to bail out New York? Which side you on? His leverage gains Clelia another run, this one into Chelsea. Chelsea has been an Enclave, lily-white, since the days of the Revolt. Chelsea is also the last bastion of Manhattan's preëminence in the performing arts, a monument to Theater. For Clelia, Theater triumphs over prejudice. Two gay partygoers are intrigued by her Amazon image. She is imported talent. They try to smuggle her through a huge costume party to the River. Again she is caught. Again she runs for it, half Chelsea at her heels. She must climb out of a sunken garden with hands so blistered by chemicals that she can't grip the wall.
