My Fashion Lookbook Jacky Bahbout, Cynthia Merhej, 2012-10-02 Fresh, spontaneous, and aimed at budding young designers: how to create your own fashion collection Inspired by the hands-on, write-in, look-and-feel idea of a sketchbook, My Fashion Lookbook encourages children to think through, write up, and sketch out their own fashion ideas through a series of engaging questions and visual exercises. Here children follow the process of a real fashion designer to create their own collections. This includes finding inspiration; making a mood board; collecting examples; selecting colors and a defining silhouette; experimenting with fabrics, prints, and patterns; assembling a “lookbook” to show off the new creations; and organizing a runway show. Step by step, children sketch, collect, cut, and paste ideas into the book to build the designs for their own unique fashion collections.

The African Lookbook Catherine E. McKinley, 2021-02-09 Winner of the African Photobook of the Year Award A Choice Outstanding Title of the Year A USA Today Must-Read for Black History Month An NPR Goats and Soda Editors' Pick A BookRiot Favorite Nonfiction Book of the Year An unprecedented visual history of African women told in striking and subversive historical photographs-featuring an Introduction by Edwidge Danticat and a Foreword by Jacqueline Woodson. Most of us grew up with images of African women that were purely anthropological-bright displays of exotica where the deeper personhood seemed tucked away. Or they were chronicles of war and poverty-“poverty porn.” But now, curator Catherine E. McKinley draws on her extensive collection of historical and contemporary photos to present a visual history spanning a hundred-year arc (1870-1970) of what is among the earliest photography on the continent. These images tell a different story of African women: how deeply cosmopolitan and modern they are in their style; how they were able to reclaim the tools of the colonial oppression that threatened their selfhood and livelihoods. Featuring works by celebrated African masters, African studios of local legend, and anonymous artists, The African Lookbook captures the dignity, playfulness, austerity, grandeur, and fantasy-making of African women across centuries. McKinley also features photos by Europeans-most starkly, striking nudes-revealing the relationships between white men and the Black female sitters where, at best, a grave power imbalance lies. It's a bittersweet truth that when there is exploitation there can also be profound resistance expressed in unexpected ways-even if it's only in gazing back. These photos tell the story of how the sewing machine and the camera became powerful tools for women's self-expression, revealing a truly glorious display of everyday beauty.

Create Your Own Lookbook Cynthia Rehbein, 2019-11-30 Are you tired of having a wardrobe full of clothes but nothing to wear? Do you feel like the fashion advice out there doesn't pertain to your life or your lifestyle? Are you looking for a minimalist approach to your style and your wardrobe without losing your sense of self? If you answered yes to any of these questions, this book is for you! Create your own Lookbook was inspired by my own personal style journey and what I learned along the way. Most of my life I was frustrated that I could not find a workable wardrobe that was perfect for me and my lifestyle even though I had the resources and the closet space to do so. I, like many, found myself with a closet stuffed with clothes and yet I felt as though I had nothing to wear. I read, absorbed and devoured as much of the style advice as I could only to become increasingly discontented. Eventually, I was able to develop the confidence to trust myself and what I have learned along the way. I wrote Create Your Own Lookbook to encourage you to do the same. I was motivated by what fashion designers do season after season. They create a lookbook of curated outfits that showcase their brand identity. We all have our own unique and individual style identity but do not trust in our ability to empower ourselves to develop our own lookbook. I hope to show you how to do this for yourself! I did not want to start from scratch and toss out all that I owned but needed to figure out where to start and how to move forward year after year in creating and curating my own style. It turns out that it isn't that complicated and it's just a click away. Enjoy!

CES Limited Semiannual Lookbook Jasmine Wright Morgan, 2017-05-02 EXCERPT: Columbus Editorial Society Limited founders Jasmine Wright and Morgan Burke published this lookbook with several intentions, first of which was to formally feature the first organization of its kind and publish the story of how the first creative collaboration brand was initiated and developed. As similar organizations spin off, it grows increasingly valuable to recognize the Society's history, mission, and vision. Second, we intended to feature all (or at least most) of the talented artists who gifted us their time, their money, and most phenomenally, their trust over the first six months of our journey and the exceptional work that came of that. We have been repeatedly amazed at the respect we receive from artists looking to join the Society and at the descriptions of the impact the Society has had on existing members. It is your willingness to create and the profoundness of your work which drives all of this onward. Third, we intend to continue to raise the standard of what it means to connect artists, to inspire creativity, and to build a brand by originating the first monthly publication featuring Columbus, Ohio models and photographers. With this premier semiannual lookbook, we hope to showcase excellence and variety, just two of the traits our business is built upon, and create a visual reference for the upcoming monthly publications planned for 2017. Finally, we intend to give gratitude to the supports who have carried us to our current position in just 6 months; To our parents, Stephanie Tahy, Paige and Brian Burke, for their unwavering belief in this 'crazy' idea that we could change an entire community and build a life off of $3,000 AirBnB's.
